Collection at the city's designated facilities

Bringing small appliances to drop-off boxes

The city has nine drop-off boxes at the city hall and associated facilities to collect used small appliances, such as cameras and game consoles, that can be thrown in the boxes through their slots (20 x 35 cm).

For details such as items that can be collected, check them on the city's website.

▼ Check how they are collected by the city by entering "recycle small appliances" in the search box on the city's website

Collection service provider that has an agreement with Moriguchi City

小型家電 大臣認定 第0024号

Courier collection from your

Moriguchi City has signed an agreement with ReNet Japan Recycle, Inc., a nationally certified collection service provider, to collect small appliances, including PCs, from your home via a courier service. You can use this service free of charge if a PC is included.
The total dimensions (width, depth, and height) of a box for delivery must be 140 cm or shorter. If the weight of the box is 20 kg or lighter, you can put as many items as possible in it.
*Be sure to delete data stored on your computer.
*An extra fee is charged for a CRT monitor because it costs money to dispose of it.
*A separate fee is charged for more than one box.
